TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1879.

Wisconsin's Coat of Arms.

We are permitted to copy the following letter from Col. Geo. W. Burchard, private secretary of Governor Smith, and are sure that it will be interesting to every reader of the Journal:

STATE OF WISCONSIN.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, MADISON, WIS.

DEAR SIR: A temporary absence has prevented an earlier reply to your favor, making inquiry into the motto of Wisconsin, its origin and interpretation, but awaiting myself of the first moment's leisure returning, I take much pleasure in communicating such information in regard to the subject as I have been able to gather.

The records of the executive office and of the Secretary of State are entirely silent in regard to the origin or interpretation of the Great Seal or of devices engraved thereon. The Seal was procured by Governor Nelson Dewey very soon after, if not before, his first inauguration as Governor in 1848, and a description thereof deposited with, and recorded by the Secretary of State, December 29, 1851.

It is believed that Governor Dewey applied to Chancellor Lathrop, of the State University, to design a Great Seal for the State, and that a design therefor was furnished by him, and that Governor Dewey, being in the city of New York, was about to have a seal engraved therefrom. On his way to the engravers, the Governor chanced to meet, in Wall street, the Hon. E. G. Ryan—now Chief Justice of the State—and exhibiting the design to him, it was criticized and disapproved; and then and there those two citizens of Wisconsin, in that busy thoroughfare, designed the present seal and coat of arms of the State. Doubtless it is to this circumstance and the associations connected therewith that we are to look for the explanation of the motto "Forward." The motto of New York is "Excelsior," and being in New York, her motto came prominently into notice and suggested the similar one of "Forward." A representation of a badger was introduced not so much because "badgers" were more plenty in Wisconsin than elsewhere, but because the settlers in the Territory from the earliest times after the Jesuit missionaries, were called "Badgers" to distinguish them from the people of Illinois who were called "Suckers," because they came up the various streams during the period of high water in the spring and went down with rafters, etc. Whereas the Wisconsin settlers in those early days were mostly in the mining regions of the southwest, and remained there throughout the year and not a few of them literally "burrowed in the ground" after the manner of badgers—excavating rather than building dwellings. The shield supported by the sailor and the miner and bearing the emblems of agriculture, manufactures, commerce, and mining, surrounding the smaller national shield and motto is, of course, easily understood without explanation.

Very Respectfully,
Geo. W. BURCHARD.

Singular Suicides.

In the year 1500, William Dorrington threw himself from the parapet of the Church of St. Sepulcher, in London, leaving behind him a note, stating as his reason, "that he wanted to go to the opera that night, but had not money enough to purchase a ticket of admission."

A farmer in Allendale, England, got a gun barrel heated, and placed the stock end in a fire, and leaped his stomach against the other. The barrel soon became hot and exploded, killing the unfortunate wretch instantly.

A blacksmith in New Orleans, in 1841, killed himself in the same manner, blowing his bellows until the fire was hot enough to explode the gun barrel.

A young lady at a boarding school in England, drowned herself in a rain cask because she was made to study from an old book. She was "sweet 16!"

A Greenwich (Eng.) pensioner, who was put upon a short allowance for misconduct, in 1846, sharpened the ends of his spectacles, and with them stabbed himself to the heart.

In a French newspaper of 1863 we find an account of a man who, his wife having proved unfaithful to him, called his valet and informed him that he was about to kill himself, and requested that he would boil him down and make a candle of his fat and carry it to his mistress, handing her at the same time the following note:

DEARER MISTRESS: I have long burred for you, and I now prove to you that my flames are real. Yours, PIERRE.

A young lady, 10 years of age, having gambled away a large fortune, hung herself at Bath, England, with a gold and silver girdle. The following note was found in her hand: "Thus I die myself up from play." This was worthy of a French woman.

Not Guilty, But Must Return the Sheep.

[From the Los Angeles (Cal.) Herald.]

Appropos of the verdict in the Thielston case, at Los Angeles, which cleared the defendant of libel while the jury rendered a paper declaring the prosecutor pure and free from the charge in the libel, we are reminded of a trial that took place in Justice Wilson's court in San Diego. A man accused of stealing sheep was on trial. After the evidence was all in the jury returned, and, as in the Thielston case, stood evenly for acquittal and one for guilty. Finally the twelfth man agreed to join the others, provided they would sign a verdict as follows: "We, the jury, find the defendant not guilty, but request that he return the sheep." Pertinent to the reason assigned by the Thielston jury, that they "did not wish to put the county to further expense," we have another verdict by a San Diego jury in a case tried before the same Justice. A negro woman had sued a man for assault with a stone. The accused was put upon the stand and admitted that he had thrown the stone. Notwithstanding, the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. In conversation afterward, the members of the jury declared this curious verdict on the ground that the man was already too high, and they did not wish to put the county to additional expense.

The National Scourge.

It is estimated that the annual damages caused by the ravages of insects and worms exceed $100,000,000 in the United States alone. Truly an enormous loss! Yet it sinks into significance when compared with the ravages of that scourge, consumption, which annually sweeps hundreds of thousands of human souls into eternity. The causes of consumption are various, depending in every instance for the development of the disease upon the accumulation and concentration of the victim. Thus the same cause which will produce in one person an attack of acute disease or a slight nervous prostration, will engender consumption in a person of scrofulous habit. That consumption can be cured by proper treatment will be readily perceived when the exact nature of the disease is understood, viz: the accumulation and deposition of scrofulous matter (tubercles) in the lungs. Obviously, the principal remedies required are (1) a powerful alternative, or blood purifier, to arrest the accumulations and also cleanse the blood of the scrofulous matter; and (2) a mild cathartic to expel the diseased matter from the system. This course of treatment, in conjunction with a strict hygienic regime, has proved the most successful method of curing this disease. Dr. Price's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative.

Pellets are the best alternative and cathartic remedies before the public, and have been alone used in thousands of cases of consumption with the most marked efficacy. Dr. Price's Invalid Hotel, at Buffalo, N. Y., affords special and unequalled advantages to consumptives, not only possessing the best medical and hygienic means of treatment, but having the essential advantage of being situated in a climate where the inhabitants are notably free from disease.

Smoking in the Dark.

Boston Advertiser.

Many smokers have noticed that for some mysterious reason there is no pleasure in smoking in the dark. This singular fact was recently confirmed by the testimony of a large number of smokers at a political gathering in Buffalo, New York. One member of the company having remarked the fact in his own experience, the discussion that ensued developed the fact that all had noticed it. Who will give a plausible reason for it.

BRIEFLETS.

No show for shows.
—Tramps are getting troublesome again.
—Literary societies promise to abound this winter.

The Williams house was burned one year ago to-day.

—Chews ought not to be beggars, but should buy their own fine-cut.

—The militiamen get some goods cheaper than the dry-goods men. They get drilling for nothing.

—Curtis' new store is about ready for occupancy, and Rider, the grocer, will soon have it filled with goods.

—The date for laying the corner stone of the water-works building has not yet been announced. Everybody is waiting.

—Business is rushing at Spring Brook farm, and all hands are busy making improvements, and preparing for winter.

—New scholars will now commence to crowd into those Sunday Schools which are preparing to give Christmas entertainments.

—There will be to-night a meeting of the Knights of Pythias. Special work will be done in the first degree. All the initiated ones are expected to be on hand.

—"They say," is a very slinky way to commence telling a yarn about a neighbor. If "they say" could only be proved for libel, it would be busy with law suits most of the time.

—"Only a curl" may be a very good subject for a poem, but a small fraction of a curl knocks the poetry and piety all out of a man when he finds it in the butter plate.

—As will be seen by a card published in another column, the drug firm of Hackley & Eldredge have dissolved partnership and the business is to be carried on by M. M. Eldredge.

—A fine portrait of T. W. Buchanan is exhibited in one of Wall King's show windows. It is from the easel of Mrs. S. S. Judd and reflects great credit on that lady's skill as an artist.

—The Ladies' Association of the Norwegian church has purchased and presented to the church a very fine Western Cottage organ. The enterprise and benevolence of the association is worthy of praise.

—At the reception and dance of the Guards next Friday night, it is expected that several visitors from the Custer Rifles, of Whitewater, the Rockford Rifles, and the Beloit City Guards will be present in full uniform.

—Now that the coal stoves are at work care should be taken to prevent any bad effects from the escape of coal gas. There were several narrow escapes from death last winter. Look a little out before closing your eyes in slumber.

—The report that L. O. Robinson was to take charge of the old Ogden house, and that it was to be reconstructed and refitted, seems to have been the outgrowth of some vivid imagination. Mr. Robinson says that there is not a word of truth in the report. He ought to know.

—A needy tramp was sorely disappointed yesterday afternoon on being given two days in jail. He had his business all arranged to stay here thirty days, but tomorrow he will be obliged to hunt up another boarding place. It is hard to be compelled to move, so often in cold weather, but it's just some men's luck.

—A young fellow named Hagany was before Justice Pritchard on the charge of being one of a duet who kicked the glass out of the rear door of Marshall's saloon. The glass-smashing occurred some months ago, but Hagany has kept so shady that the hand of the law could not collar him until yesterday. The case was adjourned until Saturday.

—Some have the idea that the dance to be given by the Janesville Guards next Friday night is to be too tony, and too kid-gloved an affair. The boys desire to say that it will be no such dressy crush as some fear. It will be orderly, and well arranged for the pleasure of all, but will be so conducted that everybody will feel at home, and everybody is invited to join in having a rattling good time.

—James Wood, who was run in Sunday for abusing his wife, stepped up before Justice Pritchard to-day. His wife who was so anxious to have him "punished" has since changed her mind, her heart had become softened, and she pleaded in his behalf for mercy. The Justice drew the curtain over the scene of domestic unhappiness, by sentencing James to one day in jail for simple drunkenness.

—Miss Mary L. Johnson is in the city for the purpose of giving instruction to those desiring to gain a knowledge of decorative art, painting on wood, porcelain and terra cotta. Miss Johnson has spent two years in study at the German Industrial Museum, and Royal Academy of Berlin, and comes hither from Milwaukee bringing some very high recommendations from well known residents of that, as well as other cities. Some specimens of her work are on exhibition at King's book store.

—Some sneak thief interfered last evening with an advertising dodge of Richardson Bros. In front of the store stood two shoes, covered with some new fangled blacking, which is said to be waterproof, and upon these shoes a stream of water was constantly trickling, to attract the attention of passers-by, and show the superiority of the blacking. The apparatus last evening succeeded in attracting one too many, and this one quietly picked up the shoes and walked off with them. As they were not marked, the thief will find little profit in the plunder.

—During the first week in December there will be a show of fat stock at the Exposition building, in Chicago, held under auspices of the Illinois State Board of Agriculture. Over $10,000 is offered in premiums, and the awards will be made, not on pedigree or fashionable colors, but on weight, quality of flesh and other points rendering an animal desirable for market. This show is held entirely for the benefit of feeders, whose interests could not be properly considered at agricultural fairs where only breeding animals should be represented. There will be buyers present from all parts of the country, and with reduced railroad rates there will be an excellent chance to dispose of the fat stock after the show is over, and to gain pecuniarily thereby. The show itself will be of great interest, and will attract many thither. Further particulars can be had of S. D. Fisher, Secretary, Springfield, Ill.

LEGAL LORE.

The Whitford-Goodrich Libel Suit—A Hanover Youth Fined $150.

The Circuit Court was busied to-day in listening to evidence in the libel suit of Whitford vs. Goodrich. The jury was secured yesterday afternoon, and to-day several witnesses were examined on behalf of the plaintiff to establish the claim that Goodrich had in the presence of several different persons, and on several different occasions, used libelous epithets in speaking of Whitford, and that a circular bearing Ezra Goodrich's name was circulated in and about Milton, said circular containing sundry charges against Whitford. The trial will probably take most of this week. A large number of witnesses are in attendance, and every bit of testimony is being examined in detail. Messrs. Bennett & Sale and Cassaday & Carpenter are employed by the plaintiff, and Messrs. Winans & McElroy and Fethers & Eldredge for the defendant.

Spencer Turner was yesterday afternoon found guilty of larceny from a dwelling house. It will be remembered that some months ago Turner and two boys entered a house in Hanover and stole $90. The boys waived examination, and were admitted to bail, the man who was robbed, being one of the bondsmen, he being induced to bail the boys out because one of them was his ward. The boys skipped out. Turner was fined $150, and this morning he dropped that amount into the judicial till and went on his way.

GALLANTRY OF THE GUARDS.

Last night a number of ladies and gentlemen gathered at the armory of the Janesville Guards to watch the boys drill. Some of the guests were packed into one end of the room, where camp chairs were provided for the ladies, while some of the men were allowed to brace up the walls. Orderly Sergeant Glass formed the company and turned them over to Lieutenant Newman, who put the boys through the moves. There were about fifty who participated in the drill. They stepped off with wonderful precision and unanimity, and fairly astonished the spectators by the ease and accuracy with which they went through the movements. The armory is so small as to necessarily cripple the free action of the boys, and last night it was too close and warm, for those who did the work, but they generously sacrificed their own comfort for the sake of those whom they had invited in. In spite of the disadvantages of limited space and heated air, the boys in blue did nobly, and it was hard to realize that they had only been drilling two nights a week for two months. It is safe to say that by the close of a year Janesville will have as well drilled militiamen as can be found in the State. The company was greeted with frequent cheers, and Dr. Whiting in a brief speech expressed the gratification which all felt in witnessing so creditable a drill. The citizens who were present last night will have henceforth greater interest in the success of the company than ever before.

INDUSTRIOUS IMPROVERS.

The Mutual Improvement Club held an interesting meeting last night, which was largely attended. The exercises opened with an informal conversation on the current events of the month. After this Miss Pulkner gave a study of Wedgewood. Mrs. Jones gave a paper on Charlotte Brontë, and Miss Hatherell discussed Shirley. A discussion of the latter paper closed the evening's doings. The Mutual Improvement Club is one of the most firmly established and most highly prosperous organizations in the city, and its members are indeed improving each other. This season promises to be with them even more successful than last year's. The members are taking hold of the work enthusiastically and will doubtless gain much by the winner's work.

THE WEATHER.

The thermometer at 7 o'clock this morning stood at 33 degrees above and at 2 o'clock this afternoon at 49 above. Clear. One year ago to-day the thermometer at corresponding hours stood at 35 and 43 degrees above.

The indications to-day are: For the upper lake region, partly cloudy weather, rain areas, followed by clearing weather, warm southwest, veering to colder north west winds, followed by rising barometer.

Tobacco at the Paris Exposition.

Official advice just received from Paris, declare that P. Lorillard & Co., of Jersey City, successfully carried off the highest award given to any tobacco dealer, viz: "The Only Grand Prize—A Gold Medal—for the superior quality of their 'Tung-Tang,' plug tobacco, fine cut chewing tobacco, smoking tobacco, and snuff." Some twenty-eight American firms, as well as the principal houses of Europe were their competitors.

MILTON.

—The entertainment at College Chapel, on Thursday evening, November 14th, was liberally patronized, the chapel being well filled, and the Contest Association, under whose auspices it was prepared and presented, are to be congratulated upon their success. The following programme was presented:

Music—Quartet, "Merrily Sound the Bells," Misses Collins and Plantz, and Messrs Mack and Sullivan.

Oration—"Forward," H. A. Bentz.

Recitation—"A Legend of Braganza," Miss Libbe Steer.

Song—"The Danube River," Miss Mate J. Hay.

Original poem—"Alp Arealan," F. J. Mack.

Paper—"The Growler," Mrs. C. A. Holmes.

Music—"The Violet," Misses Haven, Collins and Plantz.

Drama—"The Deceiver Deceived," J. Mack.

Mr. Flighy.....C. C. Rodolf.

Miss Flighy.....Miss M. D. Burdick.

Miss Flighy.....Miss Anna Howe.

Miss Flighy.....Miss L. B. Greenman.

John (servant).....F. W. Moulton.

The literary exercises were good, the recitations notably so, and the several persons in the drama were excellent. At the conclusion of the entertainment an oyster supper was served in the basement of the college building, under the auspices of the Seventh Day Baptist Aid Society, and some of the couples partook thereof. The Contest Association realized sufficient funds from their entertainment to enable them to cancel their indebtedness, we are happy to say.

—Ferry Sweet, who for many years has been a resident of this village, started last Wednesday for VanVale, Chippewa county, where he has bought a quantity of land which he proposes to "clear up" and make into a first class farm. He went overland with two wagons loaded with household effects, &c., and was accompanied by his son David Bernow. Mrs. Sweet and her daughter start for their new home this week, by rail. The family will be much missed by their Milton neighbors, and take with them the best wishes of their many acquaintances for future health and prosperity.

—It is Godfrey sold McNitt & Co. a hog, last week, that weighed six hundred and sixty pounds.

—Some Miltonians salt their pork in kerosene barrels, and say that they are just the thing for that purpose.

—S. S. Obour was called to Wauwasha county, last week, to attend the funeral of his mother, who died very suddenly.

—The average weight of Mr. Alexander's steers can be ascertained by dividing 4000 by three. We attempted the division last week, but the compositors made figures lie.

—In 1819 a minister of the Gospel gave utterance to the following sound advice: "Those who wait for dead men's shoes often get a misfit, or are obliged to go barefoot."

—Sheriff-elect Cookstock was in town on the 12th inst. interviewing some of our citizens.

—P. F. Stannard has a nobby cross-spring buggy. It rides as easy as an old-fashioned rocking chair. The Cross Spring Company have just finished a beautiful "one man" rig for the President of the Company, J. C. Davidson.

—Good flour at eight shillings a sack is a good and sufficient reason for the Aldermanic appearance of some of our citizens.

—The Northern Wisconsin State Musical Association, which meets in annual convention at Ripon on the 31st prox., have secured the services of Prof. J. M. Sullivan, of Chicago, formerly of this place, as director. The musical talent that participate in this convention are to be congratulated upon securing so efficient and cultured a director as Prof. Sullivan has shown himself to be.

—James Home sold McNitt & Co. thirty-four hogs last Wednesday that averaged nearly four hundred.

—C. H. Greenman, of Wauwasha, was in town last Wednesday.

—Miss Sarah A. Nye, of Beloit, who formerly taught the graded school here, and who has been teaching at Des Moines, Iowa, for several years past, was in town last week, the guest of Postmaster Greene.

—Prof. Struthers, of Fort Atkinson, gave an exhibition of the photograph at the Congregational Church on the evening of November 12th. His audience was small and the show was "thin."

—Last Wednesday was "a swine" day here. Six car loads were delivered to McNitt & Co., and it made things lively, the air resounding with porcine music.

—Mr. Howe, who has been improving the lots in the cemetery this season, has finished his labors for the present year, and the grounds show much improvement. The most noticeable improvement is the construction of a fine graded carriage way around the grounds which adds very much to their appearance. Mr. Howe is to be congratulated upon the success which he has achieved in this department.

—Mr. L. S. Peck, of Fulton, sold Davidson Bros., last Thursday, thirty-six fat pigs, that averaged three hundred and sixteen pounds.

—C. C. Rodolf, of Burlington, who has been a student at the College for several terms, left for Syracuse, Nebraska, last Friday, where he will teach the present winter. He intends to return next year and resume his course of study. Success attend him.

—"Asa" and William Weaver returned last Tuesday from a fourteen hundred mile trip through Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, and Dakota.

—"Asa" was being much of "talks" we are unable to find out about the sights he saw and the sounds he heard.

—M. W. Crumb and family have moved into the Heritage house and are now citizens of the village proper.

—Rev. N. W. D. D., of Milton Junction, occupied the pulpit at Seventh Day Baptist church Saturday morning and presented an able sermon.

—C. W. Crumb sent a quantity of his famous white ink to a Milwaukee card writer last week. The Milwaukee calligrapher pronounces the ink that "Clem" makes the best in use.

—The total shipments of live hogs from this station last week aggregated thirteen car loads. Williams and Borden shipped five, McNitt & Co. five, and Davidson Bros. three. During the early part of the week the market was firmer and showed a slight advance, but at the close of the week settled back and $3.75 was the ruling figure at Milwaukee. Our buyers were all on the "hog path," eager for the fray, and competition forced prices up to a range of $2.40 to $2.50, in bulk, the purchasers being effected at $2.50 for smooth fat lots, which was at least ten cents too high to give shippers a living margin. Hogs are being marketed here from points eight to twelve miles distant for all the sufficient reason, that our shippers pay ten to twenty-five cents per hundred more than can be realized in other markets. The stock yards at this station have been newly planked, new gates and scale yards built and other needed repairs and improvements made during the past ten days. Milton now has as good facilities for handling live stock as can be found at any station on the St. Paul road, and these improvements are an evidence that this point is becoming an important factor in the commerce of the State. Paul Company do not invest money in improvements of this kind at non-paying points, where the receipts do not warrant the outlay of funds.

—Milton house arrivals last week: T. B. Earl, Fulton; F. A. Ames, Clinton; J. O. Lundershausen, Chicago; F. E. Bowerman, Fulton; V. J. Linn, Milwaukee; C. E. Wing, Edgerton; H. J. Atwater, Milwaukee; C. G. Fentress, Belleville; J. C. Walker, Copenhagen, Ill.; B. H. Ludwig, Milwaukee; J. L. Street, Waupaca; R. H. Struthers, Fort Atkinson; W. W. Warner, Madison; Charles Quinn, Janesville; P. D. Basford, Watertown; W. H. Cohoe, Whitewater; J. M. Ryan, Hanover; T. W. Hamilton, Berlin; W. N. Green, Brodhead; L. H. Lyman, Whitewater; W. L. Sherman, Janesville; H. C. Pierce, Racine; J. L. Manrope, Hebron; E. E. Croft, Freeport, Illinois.

—Luther Wheeler and wife, of West Edmestown, N. Y., were in town, last week, the guests of Ezra Crandall.

—Miss Ella Richardson commemorated her fifteenth birthday Saturday evening and a large party of her young friends were present to enjoy the pleasure incident to the occasion.

—George Havens, of Ionia, Iowa, was in town Sunday, having made the trip overland with Mr. Whitmore, of Walworth county.

—Pilkington is ponding a telegraph key in the Wauwasha office this week.

—There will be an oyster supper and social at Mrs. A. C. Stannard's on Wednesday evening next, for the purpose of the Methodist Society. Tickets 50 cents per couple. All are cordially invited to be present.

FULTON.

—Tobacco buyers are making town lively by once more paying from 7 to 10 cents for Spanish, and from 4 to 7 for seed leaf according to quality.

—Mr. Dickinson, of Edgerton, has added much to the appearance of Mr. James White's place by a good coat of paint. Besides this there are several other buildings in town with this much needed improvement.

CITY NOTICES.

—S. L. James will sell a Top Buggy for $65.00, and warrant it as represented. Call and see them.

Mrs. Sarah A. Elliott.

Authoress of "Mrs. Elliott's Housewife," Oxford, N. C. writes: I was among the first that used the "London Hair Color Restorer" in this section, and recommended it to M. A. & C. A. Santos, Norfolk, Va., as the most beautiful hair dresser and preserver I had ever seen. I was advised by an eminent physician to use it. Since doing so, it has proved so satisfactory in restoring and beautifying my hair, as well as strengthening my eyesight, that I have recommended it to the druggists here in Oxford, Raleigh, and a great many of my friends, and believe I have from what others say, caused it to have a wide and extended sale, and deservedly so, as it certainly is the most cleanly and effective hair restorer now before the American people. The "London Hair Color Restorer" can be obtained at all the leading druggists at 75 cents a bottle, or $4 for six bottles.

Tobacco Market.

[From the United States Tobacco Journal.]
New York, November 18, 1878.
The volume of business transacted last week reached 2,462 cases, which, with the exception of 440 cases, mostly Wisconsin, were for home trade. As the bulk of the 77 crop, excepting Connecticut, has by this time passed out of first hands, large transactions will be less frequent, and our weekly exhibits of sales, of course, smaller. Pennsylvania rules the market at the following excellent figures: Filiera, 7 1/2 to 8 cents; common to good running, 10 1/2 to 15 cents; fine and fancy lots, 17, 18, 20 and 25 cents. We summarize the transactions as follows:

PENNSYLVANIA
Crop '77: 1,500 cases, at above quotations, CONNECTICUT AND MASSACHUSETTS
Crop '77: 100 cases wrappers, Massachusetts, at 13 cents; Connecticut at 30 cents.
Crop '76: 50 cases wrappers, 14 and 21 cents.

STATE.
Crop '77: 114 cases; running at 7 1/2 cents, wrappers, 14 cents.
WISCONSIN
Crop '77: 398 cases; running, at 6 1/2 to 10 cents, mostly for export.
